Simmons shocks county council with Snowdon/Dysart amalgamation bid

by Jerry Grozelle

George Simmons surprised Haliburton County council by introducing a resolution calling on county to support the amalgamation of Snowdon Township with the Municipality of Dysart et al.

Some members of county council were offended that Simmons proposed such an amalgamation, especially the Reeves of Lutterworth and Anson, Hindon and Minden.

Lutterworth reeve Jim McMahon questioned Simmons' motives, suggesting that he was acting alone, without the knowledge or support of Snowdon council.

"Is George Simmons really representing Snowdon council," McMahon questioned.

McMahon said Lutterworth and Anson, Hindon and Minden had been negotiating in good faith with Snowdon with regard to the amalgamation of those three municipalities.

Anson, Hindon and Minden reeve Jeanne Anthon said Simmons' motion came as a "complete surprise" to her.

"We had made a firm commitment to work together," she said, adding that it was a disappointment for all of the people who have been working toward the goal of amalgamating the three municipalities that Simmons seemed to be abandoning that goal.

Anthon said a meeting is planned for early September to disseminate the information that the various sub-committees have been gathering over the past several weeks.

She said as far as she is concerned, the process will continue, unless Snowdon council collectively decides to break off negotiations.

"If Snowdon council members feel differently, I hope they make it known soon," she said.

In light of Simmons' proposal at county council, Anthon said she feels there will have to be a reaffirmation of the commitment to move ahead in good faith.

"We all agreed that there was a lot of work to do over the summer," Anthon said.

The September meeting was expected to be productive, with the presentation of the

An ophthalmoscope, an otoscope and two Littman Cardiology II stethoscopes were also purchased. Representatives from the Minden Hospital, Women On Snow and Minden Lioness Club gathered at the hospital for an official presentation. Claims pour in: Insurance companies inundated with calls following hail storm Damage claims as a result of the hail storm which pounded its way through Haliburton County August 16 could be more than one million dollars.

That is the estimate of one insurance broker whose office has been inundated with calls during the past week. He pointed out that since individuals are making claims at any number of insurance offices, both in and outside the county, it is difficult to obtain an over-all picture of the impact of the storm.

Drew Carey of Vasey Insurance, said his offices had received approximately 110 claims so far. "About 80% of are for damage to cars, with the rest being a result of damage to homes," Carey said the cost to deal with the vehicle claims will range from three to four thousand dollars.

A similar number of claims were filed at the two Floyd Hall Insurance offices in Minden and Haliburton. "We've had 95 claims filed as a result of the storm," company representative Cathy Arbour said. "The hail knocked out windshields and damaged the finish on many as well."

Claims are also being filed for damage to roofs, siding (particularly the north sides), satellite dishes and lawn furniture. "It is hard to believe the damage this storm caused," she said.

clients were confronted with damaged siding, broken windshields and sky lights, the result of hailstones that some people described as being as big as baseballs.

"We are fortunate, because we are a local agency, and are able to react quickly to this kind of event," Dawson said. "We had people on the scene immediately to assess the damage and begin the claims process."

He said that the storm will keep contractors busy for the next couple of months as they clean up the mess left in its wake.

As the claims came into the office, he was able to trace the line of destruction across the county from north of Carnarvon through West Guilford, north of the village of Haliburton and on to Wilberforce. He said it was a similar track to that followed by the tornado which struck the area eleven years ago.

Georgia Hewson at Vick Insurance said the claims were still coming in. "We have claims for damaged cars, satellite dishes, siding...although there seems to be more claims for damaged vehicles than property."

Perhaps the single most dramatic scene of damage was at Elstone Motors on Highway 118 just north of Haliburton Village. "Every car and truck in the lot, about 40 vehicles, was damaged," Dave Elstone said.

"We lost windshields, and mirrors. Most of the vehicle bodies were dented. The hail was huge and heavy."

The damage was not confined to the vehicles in the lot. Elstone said the steel roof over the garage took a severe pounding and will need major repairs or replacing.

Most of the cars in the lot were new, although there were also a number of used vehicles and vehicles left for repairs or service by their owners. He said only four vehicles escaped the damaging hail. One was in the show room, another in the shop, while two others were away from the lot.

We have no idea what the cost of the damage will be," Elstone said, "and we probably won't have a figure until next week." However, he did speculate it would be extensive.

The damage caused by the brief but violent hail storm of August 16 will keep the insurance agents, body shops and handymen busy for a long time and will no doubt be the subject of many conversations for years to come.

Correction

We incorrectly identified the father and daughter who appeared in the photo on the front page of last week's edition. The two featured parade participants were Zane Bell and his daughter Hannah. Our apologies for the error.

Arbour said she expected there will still be more claims filed in the near future, as cottagers who were not in the area during the storm visit their property.

A similar heavy influx of claims is being received at Dawson Insurance Brokers in Haliburton. Spokesman Art Dawson said many of his

90% of high school request gets green light

Board receives approval for school projects

by Misty Bennett

Hammers will be flying in Haliburton in the near future. Provincial funding has been approved for the building of a primary school to replace Victoria Street School and for an addition to Haliburton Highlands Secondary School.

The Haliburton County Board of Education received notification of the funding Tuesday and it was announced during the regular board meeting.

The board was warned that it may take up to a month to get the final approval but building could begin in December, that is if the board wants to deal with the problems associated with winter construction.

The Victoria Street replacement was approved as submitted. However, only 90% of the high school additions received the nod from the provincial authorities. Among the items that were not accepted were the theatre and a third gym. Endorsement was received for a new double gymnasium and additional classrooms. Board members will be considering the possibility of appealing the province's response to its grant request.

Other discussion taking place at the meeting was the continuation of the Local Education Improvement Committee (LEIC) public meetings planned for September.

Chairperson Cheryl Murdoch told the meeting, "We're getting a fair bit of work done, but we seem to be getting stalled at times waiting for more information and guidelines from the larger EIC group."

Trustee Barrie Martin asked about the possibility of appealing the number of trustees who will govern the amalgamated Board of Education. It has been decided that there will be a total of ten trustees (five representing Victoria County, three for Muskoka and one for Haliburton) plus a Native trustee.

The option of appealing the numbers was discussed, however the board was told the number of trustees is one of the few items that cannot be appealed merely on the basis of representation.

A number of questions were raised in regard to an alternate trustee, in case of illness so that Haliburton is not ever without representation at meetings.

Director of Education, Brad Saunders informed the group on the latest developments in the court challenge of the Fewer School Boards Act, and pointed out that the presiding judge had ruled in favour of the Ministry of Education. However, Saunders also brought it to the attention of the group that the judge was making decisions on legislation which has yet to be enacted.

Saunders stressed the importance of watching how similar cases unfold in Newfoundland and in Quebec.

HHSS renovations

Renovations at the high school are now complete and finishing touches are the only remaining items of concern. The ceilings in a couple of the science labs have been repaired, and the rooms will be ready when the students arrive September 2.

The wheelchair access ramp is completed and the contractor is waiting for the tile that will finish the project. In the meantime, the ramp can be used.

The new intercom system at J. Douglas Hodgson Elementary School was installed last week, in time for the fall semester, and the septic system at Dorset Elementary has been replaced and approved by the Ministry of Health.

The Haliburton Board of Education is venturing onto the information highway with the purchase of 43 new computers and five new printers for the elementary schools, 12 new computers for the high school, and an upgrade of 77 work stations in the high school to Corel Suite 8 and the Windows 95 operating system. A 56 K data line has been installed at the high school allowing the school to be its own internet service provider. Each student will have access to an e-mail account. The board has also purchased three laptop computers: one for the high school and one each for the two larger elementary schools. The laptops will be available on a sign-out basis for teachers who don't have computers in their classrooms.

New teachers

A number of new faces will be gracing the halls of the local schools this fall and they won't all be students.

"This is the largest group of new teachers I've seen in a long, long time," said Superintendent of Education, Dale Robinson.

The new teachers were hired in July and they have just completed a huge orientation session.

A number of the elementary school teachers will be gathering on August 28, to work on and discuss the new curriculum which was distributed prior to the summer break-up. The teachers have had the summer to read the provisions of the new curriculum and prepare for possible changes that will have to be made to individual courses of study. The biggest change expected is that some topics of study will be moved to earlier grades.

Haliburton Highlands Field Naturalists

Annual meeting at Snowdon Park

by Jerry Grozelle

It was a natural setting for Haliburton Highlands Field Naturalists annual meeting. The group of more than 40 gathered under a tent in Snowdon Park for the meeting August 9. The development of the park as a nature preserve has been one of the projects of the organization.

"I was delighted with the turnout," said president Irena Durling.

The directors for the coming year were elected. Durling is the president. Kim Wendt is the secretary. The treasurer's duties will be handled by Gwen Douglas.

The Membership Committee includes Hannel Walsh and Harold Rolff-Petersen.

Program Committee members are Aileen Coates, Mike Darlington and Marion Jones.

Shirley McCormick is the newsletter editor.

The Promotion Committee includes Roy Clark, Karin Finigan and Owen Douglas.

Starting in January of 1998, the HHFN will be offering family memberships at $30. Single memberships will increase to $25, from $20. It was explained that the club has been facing a deficit and it is hoped the increase will help to offset the shortfall.

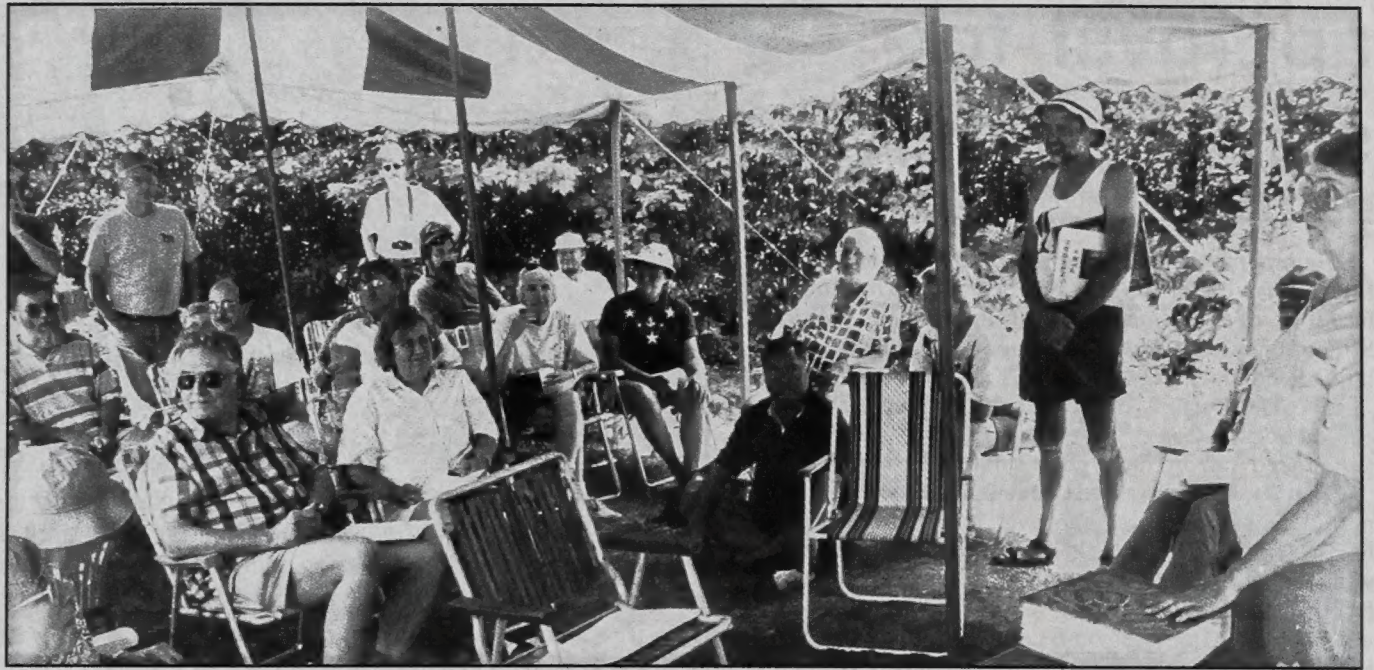

After the formal meeting, Ed Poropat and Brenda Chambers conducted tours of the park, identifying plant species found in the area.

Members and visitors tested the new boardwalk which was constructed by members of the Ecotourism classes of Sir Sandford Fleming College campuses in Haliburton and Lindsay.

A plaque recognizing the contributions of Michael Collins was shown to the group. The plaque designates Collins an Honourary Life Member of the HHFN for his dedication and special contributions to the organization.

A luncheon, raffle and silent auction rounded out the day's activities.

The Haliburton club will host a regional meet on Saturday, September 27 from 1 to 4 p.m. at Wintergreen Sugar Bush on County Road 1. Representatives from as many as 13 clubs are expected to attend. The regional meet coincides with the club's fifth anniversary.

Irena Durling, right, directed the meeting as members of the Haliburton Highlands Field Naturalists gathered at Snowdon Park for the organization's annual meeting.

County majority rejects proposal sub-committee reports adding another building block to the goal of amalgamation.

"The talks were going well," Anthon said. "But George seems to want a speedier conclusion."

The motion was defeated by a majority of county council members, but Anthon said it shouldn't discourage Simmons or anyone else.

"It is disturbing that he perceives a lack of support for his motion as a lack of interest in moving ahead with restructuring," she said. "I think we all want fairness and equity for all the municipalities. We want to see input across the board before the decisions are made."

Stanhope reeve Jock Mavor noted that a previous proposal by Dysart to amalgamate with Snowdon was rejected by Simmons. He questioned why Simmons had a change of heart.

Glamorgan reeve Elva Bates termed Simmons' motion "another back-door way of opening a can of worms similar to asking for a commissioner to come in."

Not all of county council's members rejected Simmons' proposal. Dysart deputy-reeve Bill Davis admitted that it was putting the cart before the horse to get the county's approval before the municipalities negotiated, but he said, "If Snowdon wants to amalgamate with Dysart, we shouldn't stand in the way."

Sherborne et al reeve Ross Rabjohn said he thought the county should support the motion.

Simmons says the idea behind his motion was to spur some movement toward amalgamation.

"I'd prefer five municipalities instead of 10 going into the municipal election," he said. "At least the (provincial) government would look at

Shock therapy

Unfettered by the need to seek the approval of the voters in the upcoming municipal election and driven by an all-consuming desire to ensure Haliburton County, and Snowdon Township in particular, isn't swamped by the tidal wave of change which is about to sweep through the area from Queen's Park, Reeve George Simmons appears to have embarked on his own particular brand of shock therapy. His latest treatment was delivered last Wednesday at the regular County Council meeting when, seemingly out of the blue, he proposed the meeting approve an amalgamation between the Municipalities of Snowdon and Dysart et al. The move came apparently without consultation with his own council and certainly without notice to the elected officials of Lutterworth and Anson Hindon and Minden with whom Snowdon officials have been involved in serious amalgamation negotiations.

Reeve Simmons has some legitimate concerns about the financial viability of the municipalities in the area under the new municipal regimen which is beginning to emerge from the provincial government. He is correct in suggesting they must be addressed soon. However, ad hoc, ill-conceived, theatrical ploys will do little to move the process ahead in a rational manner.

While a little jolt to rouse the complacent is a good thing once in a while, we believe Reeve Simmons' current efforts would be better spent attempting to achieve some workable solution in the negotiations currently underway with his neighbouring municipalities.

18 wonderful years

To all who shared our loss:

He lit up our lives for eighteen years. He was joy and laughter and music and love. He was our Bob. And we were the sometimes captive but always captivated audience that he rehearsed all of his voices, characters, songs, routines and roles on. We can't imagine a home filled with more fun and laughter.

With a lifetime of memories and photographs filled with his dazzling smile, we will carry on, one day at a time, loving him and missing him always.

We have been overwhelmed by the outpouring of love and support we have received from this community we call home. Knowing that he touched so many lives and having so many of you share your love in so many ways will surely help our hearts to mend as the days go by.

There is not enough space, nor adequate words to express our gratitude to each and every one of you as we would like, but please know that your expressions of caring and concern will stay with us always.

We would like to give special thanks to all who sent cards, letters, food, money, photographs and floral tributes, all of which helped us through these first difficult days. To those who made donations to M.A.D.D. and O.S.A.I.D., hopefully we can make a difference. Thanks to Drs. Bottum, Heyes, Ferracuti and Samantha Nutt and Nurses Nancy Roberts, Jean Heathcote and Shannon Feir of the Haliburton Hospital and the staff of Sunnybrook Health Science Centre for doing all that they could for Bob and for us.

Very special thanks to the O.P.P. Officers, Ambulance, Fire and Emergency crews for their heroic efforts and for doing their very difficult jobs for us all, every day. Thanks to a very kind and caring Police Officer we spoke with at Sunnybrook who's name we hope to learn someday.

Our heartfelt thanks to Gary Brohman and Sue Carr for capturing Bob's spirit in their loving tributes and to Jack Brezina at the Minden Times and Martha Perkins at the Echo for their kind and thoughtful words. To Jenna Stutt for her beautiful rendition of a Hymn that so fully expresses what his Mother and Father are feeling in their hearts. To all who shared their stories and to Bob's friends and Bill Gliddon for sharing their music with us at the funeral. To Rev. Christopher Greaves for his guidance and love and Barry Cray and the staff of the Gordon A. Monk Funeral Home for easing us through difficult days.

To all of the young people who opened their hearts and expressed their love for Bob, be kind to one another, dream the biggest dreams you can dream and work hard to make them all come true. That was Bob's way. We expect to hear wonderful things about you all as you continue your education and pursue exciting new careers. To the Morissettes we send our love and best wishes for Mike's speedy recovery.

Lastly we would like to thank our very special friends, neighbours and extended family here in West Guilford for the luncheon at the Community Centre and for taking care of us without thought or hesitation, and most especially to Bob's Godparents and our dearest friends and neighbours Val and Ken Chumbley for pulling us through our darkest days and helping us see tomorrow. As Dorothy Gale once said in a land called Oz, "There's no place like home."

With love,

Comparing restructuring options

This is the second in a series of articles prepared by former Haliburton County planner Mark Stagg.

SOME RECENT STUDIES

The studies undertaken by the Township Clerks and Road Superintendents in 1996 looking at a one tier county municipality was mentioned last week. They estimated an annual savings of about $900,000 could be achieved. That is about 4% of the combined County and ten Township annual expenditures. They could be called "negotiated" savings. There would be some start up costs and also some revenues from disposal of surplus buildings and facilities.

In January 1997, David Barber & Associates reported potential savings could be achieved in two main fashions:

- By benchmarking provision of services at the second lowest cost per capita, (among the ten townships), about $260,000 could be saved. This implies some general lowering of service provision.

- Secondly the study suggested that $900,000 a year could be saved by benchmarking snow removal and transferring all road maintenance to the townships. There has been debate as to whether these savings are fully realizable. This June, the 'County's Who Does What Committee' reported. Generally it recognized the existing distribution of responsibilities between the county and the townships.

PROBLEM WITH NUMBERS

Numbers in any analysis of municipal operations always present difficulties. In Haliburton County the problem is compounded by the seasonal resident factor.

There are about 33,800 seasonal residents compared to 14,000 permanents. To estimate solid waste generation, the Ministry of the Environment recommend weighting seasonal residents at about 1/3 of permanent residents. This reflects the amount of service seasonal residents receive compared to year round residents. Thus a weighted permanent population equivalent for Haliburton County would be about 25,000 people.

Meanwhile, during the summer of 1997 the debate continues hotly between the province and municipalities as to what services and responsibilities will be given to municipalities in 1998 with what revenue sources. The data that follows is therefore preliminary and will require adjustment as new information comes in.

SOME COST BENEFIT INDICATORS

The report that has ordered Kent County (21 municipalities) and the City of Chatham to merge into one municipality provides some interesting data. A local group calculated that restructuring to 7 lower tier municipalities would save 1.9% of total budget costs and to a one tier municipality would save about 3.6%.

These are savings from a "negotiated" reorganization. If changes were "imposed" by a new council the savings to be gained were estimated to be 3% and 7% respectively.

In the report commissioned by the County and City of Peterborough a "negotiated" savings to restructure from 19 municipalities (including the City) to 9 (including the City) was estimated to be about 1.69%.

In 1997 the combined total budget expenditure in Haliburton of the County and ten Townships is about $21,900,000. Possible savings (annual ongoing) for Haliburton County based on the above reports could be as follows. It is assumed that the present level of service continues.

Form of Reorganization	Annual Savings
Negotiated 2 Tier	1.7% = about $372,000
Negotiated 1 Tier	3.6% = about $788,000
Imposed 2 Tier	3.0% = about $657,000
Imposed 1 Tier	7.0% = about $1,533,000

These numbers compare neatly with the numbers produced in 1996 by the municipal clerks. A caution is that there will be one time only start up costs and some revenues as redundant property is sold. It is also necessary to echo the caution of the County Warden that may be the dollar savings from restructuring won't be that big. What would result would be fewer municipalities (or one) that would be much stronger and more capable of handling an expanded range of responsibilities with a tighter budget.

COSTS IN 1998

The Peterborough County (& City) Report of April, 1997 provides a useful estimate of possible increases in municipal costs in 1998. It assumed education costs were to go to the Province, while social assistance and other costs come to the municipal level. The bottom line was an estimated 15.8% increase in property taxes in 1998. Here, to pay the municipal cost share of expanding the Minden and Haliburton Hospitals and Hyland Crest, it has been suggested there be a special levy for 3 years. Added in our property tax increase in 1998 might be about 22.6% over 1997. That is about $4,960,000 more per year local government expense.

The third and last article next week will examine more of the tough issues. It will also propose a new "made in Haliburton County" approach to restructuring.

My word

I never write metropolis for seven cents because I can get the same price for city. I never write policeman because I can get the same money for cop.

Mark Twain

The author of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn was a very funny man, but he was no chucklehead - especially when it came to the business of writing. He knew that words were the currency and coinage of his craft. He also knew that bigger didn't necessarily mean better.

But mostly what Mark Twain did was carry on a life-long love affair with words.

You pretty well have to, if you want to be a writer. It comes with the territory. Not that you have to be a writer to love words. I know a plumber who does the cryptic crossword in the New York Times every day. And I know a farmer who reads Homer in the original Greek. Lots of people love words. In fact, a chap by the name of Vick Knight Jr., has just published a book called My Word which is devoted to the favourite words of famous people.

Ronald Reagan claimed his favourite word was 'home'. For Billy Graham, it's 'decision'. Lucille Ball voted the word 'beauty' as the most... well, beautiful word in the language. For writer Erma Bombeck it was 'yes'.

Some of the people Knight queried followed the lead of Mark Twain (see above). Which is to say that they reacted with a certain stinginess. Playwright Ira Levin sent a telegram that read "Sorry, I'm in the middle of a play and need every word I've got." Science fiction writer Isaac Asimov wrote a reply in longhand. It read: "I thought about your request and I really don't have a favourite word and even if I make one up, it will mean getting a picture to you, and making up some soppy paragraph or other, and - well, I just don't want to."

It's a tougher question than it appears on the surface. What would you pick as your favourite word? The English language is festooned (there's one of my favourites) with hundreds of potential delegates.

Someone once asked William Espy for a list of his favourite words. The famous wordsmith replied with:

meandering
mellifluous wisteria
Shenandoah
murmuring
... and gonorrhea

Again, words don't have to be lengthy to be splendid. Hush is a wonderful word. So is mist. And dawn.

Many good words have alas, been lost. Back in the 16th century, a pretty young woman was called a bellibone or a poplolly. And someone who was down in the dumps was said to be suffering a bad case of mubblefubbles.

I'd be hard-pressed to say what my favourite word is. Ugly words are plentiful enough. Victual is an ugly word. So is saxophone. And phlegmatic. Ugly is easy - but most beautiful?

Maybe I'll go with Dorothy Parker. Someone once asked the New York wit what she thought the most beautiful phrase in the English language was. Ms. Parker smiled and murmured: "Cheque enclosed".

The hospital is a vital part of the community

The following letter was directed to the executive director of the Minden Hospital and the Haliburton Highlands Health Services Board, Foster Loucks.

Dear Mr. Loucks:

The summer of '97 began as usual for us on Canning Lake, with great weather and great enthusiasm. However, there was one difference from all of the other summers (30 to be exact) that we have spent in your beautiful community. Twice, in a four day span, we experienced two unfortunate, minor mishaps which required medical attention. Naturally, we turned to the hospital in Minden for help as we are not patients of any of your local doctors.

On both occasions, we were processed by friendly and efficient triage nurses. Time spent in the waiting room was minimal. We were seen by different doctors on each visit but both were very capable, professional and approachable.

The second injury was close to an eye and we were very impressed and appreciative of the doctor's thoroughness. He made his 8 year old patient (and his mother) very relaxed as he did three or four vision tests and then stitched up the cut.

At the time, we thanked both the doctors and the nurses for their help and kindness but somehow that doesn't seem to be enough. In the 30 years that our family has been spending summers here, we can only recall perhaps four other occasions when we required medical attention. Fortunately, all were minor and hopefully we will require your services even less over the next 30 years. However, it's nice to know that efficient, reliable care is at hand. Please accept this small donation as an expression of our gratitude and respect for the importance of your presence in this community.

Magnanimous decision

Editor:

re: LEIC committee meets in Minden, August 5 edition of The Times.

It is admirable that the amalgamation of the three school boards has progressed so far without any apparent animosity as to the basic "who, why, where, what and how" of the restructuring.

However, with the number of trustees being chosen for the new board being based on the geography of the area, the clustering of the schools and the population numbers of the individual boards, I would assume that this formula would not apply to the other decisions concerning the amalgamation.

Would it not be a magnanimous gesture of the parties concerned to determine the location of the new board office, (which obviously should be housed in an existing facility), either in an area of economical need and/or perhaps located centrally within the new geographical area. This should eliminate any time consuming debates regarding "my backyard, because I'm bigger" and/or "this is our turf" scenario?

Satellite offices are expensive and the population question would be served more than adequately by having the trustees travel to a central location. If this proves to be too much of a hardship for the trustees, perhaps they could be reimbursed mileage. However, many individuals travel over 100 km with one to two hours travelling time to get to their jobs. This is an accepted fact and way of life for many of the working stiffs in the province.

Bottom line - let's save money, be realistic, and let common sense prevail.

An isolated case?

Editor:

I have been a cottager in the Minden/Haliburton area for over 22 years. During that time I have had work done on my cottage on numerous occasions, and have always employed local area contractors. I have found them to be courteous, honest, easy to deal with, and above all they do the job when they say the will, completing it without any fuss or bother.

Such was my satisfaction that in recent years I have never held back on my final payment in order to make sure any small details would be completed. One would rarely ever do this with big city contractors no matter who they are. Well, it seems the big city disease is spreading to the Haliburton area.

I employed a local contractor last September-October for a job of some $7000, and paid him promptly even though there was a minor item to complete. I have been trying ever since to get him back to complete it. He said he would do it last fall but didn't. I have called several times this spring and summer and all I get is promises. Finally I had someone else complete it and have learned my lesson.

I hope this is an isolated case. Is anyone else having this kind of experience with local contractors? I have read articles in the local area papers which promote the employment of local contractors. My experience as noted above would seem to indicate that I will have to be more cautious in doing so in the future.

Editor:

Recently, a number of municipal politicians have alleged, either explicitly or implicitly, that municipal governments in Ontario are legally unable to prohibit women from baring their breasts at public swimming pools; in the words of one of them, these governments have "no power to regulate the mode of dress of persons in a public place."

However, most - if not all - municipal governments in Ontario prohibit cross-dressing at public swimming pools, and/or the wearing of Brazilian-style (as distinguished from American-style) thong bikini bottoms, even though neither legally constitutes a publicly indecent act.

If municipal governments in Ontario are legally able to prohibit either cross-dressing at public swimming pools, or the wearing of Brazilian-style thong bikini bottoms there, then they are also legally able to prohibit women from baring their breasts there!

In any case, I urge every municipal government in Ontario to pass a resolution endorsing Scarborough West MPP Jim Brown's private member's bill, the Municipal Amendment Act 9 (by-laws respecting nudity), 1997, which, if it becomes law, will give all of them the same legal authority to prohibit women from baring their breasts in public places in general as they have to prohibit female strippers in adult entertainment establishments from choosing to allow their customers to touch their breasts.

Helen St.Claire
Sunderland

Editor:

Re the ongoing controversy over the fact that women's public exposure of their breasts for certain reasons is no longer a legally indecent act in Ontario.

Gwen Jacob, Anne Hansen and other "top-less protesters" have demonstrated against Canadian Criminal Code, Section 173 (1)(a) - which concerns public indecency - because they falsely believe that it acts on a sexist double standard; they have not demonstrated against it because it acts on a puritanical value system, or because it violates women's (and men's) body autonomy per se. To borrow a quote from Ms. Hansen about breasts - "sexual, but only when a woman chooses to present (it) as such"; or that men have sexualized it.

How can the concept of "tolerance" be defined in Canadian law such that it truthfully be stated that a woman exposing her breasts in public does not exceed the "community standard of tolerance", but a woman exposing her (or a man exposing his) genitals in public does?

Sheldon Warnock
Beaverton

Editor's note: despite what these two writers and others seem to believe, we think the issue of whether women should bare their breasts in public has not become the hot issue some thought it could or should. That being our assessment of the situation, we have put the issue to rest, at least for a little while. Besides, its getting cooler outside and, well, Canadian winters just don't lend themselves to that sort of thing.

TSW report

The lakes in Haliburton area declined by less than 2% this past week due to the rain. At 58.7%, they average lower than normal by 8.1%. Further rains this week may narrow the gap some more, but these lakes are unlikely to return to normal that quickly.

Flow from them has been reduced to near minimum, since the Kawarthas have rebounded with the rains. This situation should last longer too, due to the impending wet weather. Minimum flow is still being discharged down the Otonabee River from the Kawarthas.

The rains restored Lake Simcoe-Couchiching to very near its rule curve level for the time of year.

(Report prepared August 20, 1997.)

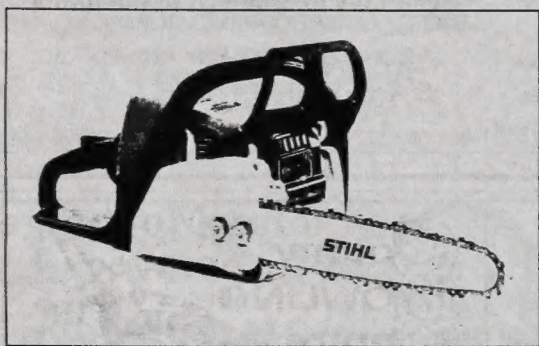

Health unit hosts mouthguard clinics

The Haliburton, Kawartha, Pine Ridge District Health Unit (Health Unit) is helping to reduce the risk of painful dental injuries by promoting the use of personal mouthguards.

To encourage mouthguard use, the Dental Department of the Health Unit is holding clinics to provide fitted mouthguards for area athletes. Clinics are scheduled early in September in all area high schools. Appointments for mouthguard fittings are also available by contacting a health unit office.

"Anyone who is active in a sport that could involve a blow to the mouth should be wearing a protective mouthguard," commented Kay Nicholas, Dental Supervisor. "Custom-made mouthguards can prevent costly, painful dental injuries."

Having a personal mouthguard is simple and inexpensive. The dental staff make an imprint of an individual's own teeth so it fits the mouth correctly. Mouthguards are comfortable to wear and do not restrict breathing. The cost to the patient is $20.00, payable on the day of fitting.

The victim's rights should come first

Editor:

I was extremely annoyed at the court's recent decision that revoking a drunk driver's license was unconstitutional. That feeling quickly turned to dismay after the tragedy in Haliburton August 9.

The death of one of our youths is always a shock, especially under these circumstances. My deepest sympathies go out to the family and friends of Bob Sisson.

What can we do? Perhaps a start would be writing our MPPs for tougher laws. After all, a drivers' licence is a privilege not a right. The victims of drunk drivers should have rights above all.

Haliburton Hockey Haven back in operation

by Jerry Grozelle

What happened to the Haliburton Hockey Haven?

That's a question that a lot of hockey enthusiasts have been asking for several years. If a local group has its way, the Haliburton Hockey Haven will become a viable operation again. The group is headed by Pat Russell (president), along with Don Russell, Ron May, Dave Austin and George Simmons.

This week will mark the re-opening of the hockey school, at the Dysart Arena in Haliburton. It will run for one week, to test the waters. If the response is favourable, organizers are hoping to run the camp all summer in 1998, possibly expanding to the Minden arena as well, some time in the future.

The original program was started in 1965 by Jim Gregory and Wren Blair. This year, three local former NHL players, Glen Sharpley, Ron Stackhouse and Walt McKechnie will head the team of instructors for the one-week session. McKechnie will be the co-ordinator.

The school will accommodate up to 100 students, but Haliburton Hockey Haven president Pat Russell said he will be happy to get 60 for this session.

The hockey school will be for players aged six to 16. They will be divided into two groups -- six to 13 and 14 to 16. The younger group will receive two hours instruction per day and the older group will get three hours.

"Glen Sharpley, Ron Stackhouse and Walt McKechnie are good to work with," Russell said. "They've all been there (NHL). They know how to get there and they know how to stay there."

Russell added that the students will get some excellent instruction, including power skating, puck handling, as well as offensive and defensive plays.

Ron Stackhouse, who played for the Pittsburgh Penguins and the Detroit Red Wings, says he's looking forward to helping with the Hockey Haven. He attended the camp himself as a youngster. He says he has a lot of good memories from his days at the camp.

"Haliburton was the first bona fide hockey camp -- the first out of the starting blocks," Stackhouse said. "It had a lot of big name players over the years."

One of those players was Boston Bruins legend Bobby Orr.

Stackhouse said the Hockey Haven was quite an attraction during its heyday.

The plan for the one week session is to focus on the basics.

"The basics never change," Stackhouse said, adding that the players who best execute the basics are the ones who are the most successful. "We may be grandfathers to some of the kids, but there's a lot to be learned from the elder statesmen."

"The people behind this have some expertise," Stackhouse said. "I'm happy to be helping to get it off the ground."

Russell said the Hockey Haven will run a few tournaments throughout the season. The first will be in Haliburton (more on page 13)

Scott Nesbitt's team strains for third place in the late stages of the heavy horse class

Indiana teams dominate heavy horse class

The trip from Muncie, Indiana was well worthwhile for Tom Humbardt. The Hoosier State resident brought two teams to compete in the Heavy Horse Class at the Haliburton County Fair. They took first and second places.

Scott Nesbitt of Minden was third. Ingram Wessell's team from Norland took fourth place. Sinc Nesbitt of Minden was fifth. Sixth went to Jeff Corbett of Kilworthy. Dave Binns of Owen Sound was seventh. Eighth went to Gary Welk of Palmer Rapids. Dwight Corbett of Severn Bridge placed ninth and Cliff Manion of Peterborough was 10th.

Plan full summer program for 1998

on the weekend of October 3-5.

"We're looking at a tournament in Clearwater in April," Russell said.

George Simmons noted that an oldtimers' tournament is scheduled for the first of March and the tournament in Florida is slated for the end of April.

Simmons said the October tournament will utilize the Minden and Fenelon Falls arenas as well as Haliburton. He said the arena in Wilberforce would have been used but the ice won't be in until the end of October.

Simmons said the old Haliburton Hockey Haven has left a lasting impression on a lot of people from quite a distance away.

"We were at a tournament in Lake Placid and some people from Baltimore asked about the Hockey Haven," he said.

With the expected influx of hockey players for next year's hockey school, along with the tournaments the Haven will be operating, Simmons says the local businesses will enjoy some economic benefits.

Bernie Nichols has made a commitment to instruct for a week next summer. The group plans to approach a number of other current NHL players to instruct at the 1998 hockey camp as well.

The 1997 version of the Haliburton Hockey Haven will run from August 25 to 29.

Simmons would prefer five municipalities going into election

Haliburton County and see that we had cut our number of municipalities in half."

Simmons suggested the simplest course of action would be to pair townships up, for example, Snowdon with Dysart; Lutterworth with Anson, Hindon and Minden; Stanhope with Sherborne et al.

He noted that there seems to be no willingness to move toward amalgamations before the municipal election in November.

"It's pretty sad when you can't pass a resolution for two municipalities to amalgamate," Simmons said.

Snowdon councillor Ross Rigney said he was "somewhat surprised" to learn of Simmons' motion.

"I don't understand where he's coming from," Rigney said. "We had a commitment to negotiate amalgamation with Lutterworth and Anson, Hindon and Minden. Maybe George's personal preference is amalgamation with Dysart, I don't know."

Rigney expressed some disappointment that Simmons hadn't mentioned his intentions at the Snowdon council meeting before springing the surprise motion at county council.

Rigney said Snowdon council had met with all the neighbouring municipalities, including Galway-Cavendish, in Peterborough County.

"We had agreed upon a process with Anson, Hindon and Minden and Lutterworth," he said.

In spite of his concerns, Rigney said, "I have a lot of respect for George. He really is concerned about the future of Snowdon Township and Haliburton County."

Rigney noted that, as a councillor, he thinks Snowdon's elected officials "probably do favour a single tier government."

Simmons says the county is the weak link, when it should be the strongest. He said he has always felt the county should provide the strong government and the municipalities should strive toward that goal, even if it means some sacrifices at the municipal level. But he doesn't anticipate that happening any time soon.

He admits that asking for county support of an amalgamation between Snowdon and Dysart was in reverse order to general practice. He speculates that even if the two municipalities had made the proposal to join, "It would probably still be turned down by the county."

One of Simmons' biggest fears is that Snowdon will have to face some severe financial hardships because of the inevitable shift in responsibilities if it remains a separate entity. The municipality has virtually no reserves and therefore no buffer to absorb the impact of those new financial responsibilities.

Weather smiles on the oldest regatta in the Highlands

by Kirk Hutchinson

The 73rd annual Gull Lake Regatta was held on the Saturday of the Civic Holiday weekend. This year we were blessed with excellent weather and had one of the largest turnouts in recent history.

The regatta started at 11:00 a.m. with the children's races. More than 150 young people participated in these events while being encouraged and photographed by thousands of adoring parents and grandparents.

Sailing races

The Duncan Trophy is awarded each year to the winner of an open class sailing race which is held on the weekend before the regatta. There was a good strong wind at the start of the race so we had a good turnout of 12 boats. However, we had to shorten the course when the wind died partway through. One boat abandoned the race, presumably to enjoy the calmest waterskiing conditions that we have had all summer. The wind eventually picked up again and the rest of the boats were able to finish.

This year's winners, after handicapping, were Kathie and Harvey Kivela in a CL14. The Ardrans were in second place in an Invitation, and Tom Fowle was in third place in an Edel 540.

Bedlington Cup

The Bedlington Cup has been awarded each year since 1924 to the overall winner in the swimming and canoeing events for ages 16 and under. Geoff Emery won the Cup for the second year in a row. Silver medals were awarded to Todd Larsen and Sheri Maisonneuve, and the Bronze medal was awarded to Aileen Nutt.

The Treadgold Trophy is awarded to the entrant 12 years of age or under who accumulates the most points in the swimming and canoeing events. This trophy was donated in 1960 by the Treadgold family in memory of Professor William M. Treadgold. Bill Treadgold, who was the Commodore of the regatta for most of the 1990's, presented the trophy to Alison Ross. The Silver medal was won by Scott Durno, and the Bronze medal was won by Jack Larsen.

We were delighted once again to have Bob Minto, accompanied by his wife Jean and his sister May Minto, present the Minto Cup to Michael Jewett, who was the overall winner in the adult canoeing events. This trophy was donated by the Minto family who ran the University of Toronto Survey Camp on Gull Lake for many years.

This year, two additional trophies were donated to the regatta. The Christie family donated a Cup which is to be presented annually to the winners of the war canoe race. This is a high-spirited event with four people per canoe. This year's winners were Donna Zaza, Terry & Rick Kennedy, and Christine Williams.

Don Rae also donated a new trophy in memory of his wife Marion, to be presented to the winners of the Grandparent & Grandchild canoe race. This year's winners were Chris Burgan and David Walker.

The gold medallions for the mixed terrain race, which involves teams of runners, swimmers, and canoeists, were won by Gordon Jewett, Brenda Jewett, and Bruno Bissonette.

The two Sharpe family paddles are presented to the winning boy and girl in the 12 and under singles canoe races. They were won by Alison Ross and Scott Durno. The Crerar family paddles are presented to the winners in the 16 and under singles canoeing events. This year's winners are Geoff Emery and Sheri Maisonneuve. The Earle family paddles were presented to the winners of the 16 and under gunwhale races: Alison Ross and Andrew Ross. The Christie Family Paddles were presented to the overall winners in the canoeing events in the 12 & under and 16 & under categories. This year's winners were Alison Ross and Geoff Emery.

Gull Lake Regatta

Each year many of the local merchants donate prizes for our raffle. This year we had a tremendous response. The Gull Lake Cottagers' Association executive determined that the proceeds from this raffle would be donated to the Minden Hospital. As a fourth generation cottager on Gull Lake, I know that all of us are appreciative of the excellent service that our families have received from the Minden Hospital for many years. We all know that we cannot take this facility for granted, and we must do everything that we can to help keep a first class hospital open in Minden, all year, all the time. I would like to thank all of the merchants who donated prizes, the volunteers who helped canvass for them, and the people who bought the tickets, for supporting this worthy cause.

As the oldest regatta in the Haliburton Highlands, this day has many long standing traditions. Even so, new traditions slowly develop and eventually stick. In each of the last few years, an anonymous donor has provided one raffle prize that is an "objet d'art", which is French for a hideous object that would be difficult to incorporate into the decor of your home. For some unknown reason, what started as the prize that nobody wanted has become the coveted grand prize of the day, to the point where we seem to have difficulty controlling the crowd when the last ticket is being drawn. If you see a large gold bust of Elvis proudly displayed in someone's cottage, please thank the young man who won it for supporting the Minden Hospital.

This is my first year as Commodore of this regatta. I am indebted to the previous Commodore, Bill Treadgold, for handing over such a well-oiled machine and helping me get started. I would like to thank all of the volunteers who helped me, the staff at The Times for their photography and coverage, and Faith and Paul Aggett at the University of Toronto Survey Camp for preparing the facility. Most of all, I would like to thank everyone who participated. We had an excellent turnout. I look forward to seeing you all back next year!

Chris Elliott of Oakville admires this year's objet d'art.

Keeping an eye on the action, spectators line the hill at the Toronto Survey Camp to watch the Gull Lake Regatta.

THE MINDEN AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY SPONSORS OF THE HALIBURTON COUNTY FAIR

Wish to express their thanks to the sponsors, volunteers and concessionaires who participated in the 1997 Fair. A special thanks to all those who paid their $5. entrance fee, without your support the Fair could not have continued for 133 years.

MANY THANKS TO ALL!!

Hyland Crest entries win ribbons in fall fair parade

Here we are, another week gone, summer appears to be winding down, but we are still enjoying our activities especially when we are out and about.

On Friday, 15th, we enjoyed our happy hour with Gord Kidd entertaining us. Saturday was a particularly busy day for us. A full bus headed to the Haliburton County Fair. Our "Hyland Rover" was well decorated for the event. We were made very comfortable while we watched the parade, munching on our "bagged lunches".

Although the parade wasn't very large, it was well done. And we did well, coming away with many prizes - second prize in the Best Decorated Organization Vehicle, first in the Best Theme Float, first prize in the Best Adult Outfit to Linda Fry, second prize to Lynn Shirley and third to Cathy Woods. Hurrah for us! You must excuse us while we toot our horns.

Later we enjoyed the music and headed back home, a tired but happy bunch of people, just in time before the storm broke. Many, many thanks to the activity staff and all the volunteers for giving us such a wonderful day. We know you worked very hard for our benefit.

On Sunday, Muriel Harrison, along with her

Lyndhurst and doing well. We are pleased to welcome two new volunteers, Chris McCartney and Janice Richard to our activity group.

Those of us who attend the craft sessions are now busily engaged in making articles for our Christmas Bazaar. Did we say 'Christmas'? It doesn't seem that long ago we were praying for the snow to go. Oh well, time does truly march on, with or without us.

On Wednesday, 20th, we enjoyed another discussion session, with various topics, and in the evening we enjoyed the music of Bert Bonnell and Everitt Fahey.

Today is tea party. Our hosts will be the Minden W.I. Our thanks to them.

We send a happy birthday to Nora Groves, who celebrates August 27.

Around the County Town

Poets Corner:

"In every home
Life's saddest tales
Are being told
On bathroom scales".

The County Town Museum Committee is holding its next meeting tomorrow, Tuesday, August 26 at 10 a.m. in the Common Room of the Art Gallery. (We apologize for not posting this notice in last week's paper as promised).

The winners of the Viewer's Choice at the Minden Museum Quilt, Rug and Fibre Arts Antique Show held in July have been announced. Esther Graham of Irondale won in the quilting section with her broken star and Ingrid Hieronomous of St. Peterburg, won in the hooked rug section with her Victorian Flowers. Each winner was presented with a first class Via Rail pass for two to anywhere in the Ontario/Quebec corridor. Congratulations to the two winners and thanks to VIA Rail.

Visiting with Florence Robinson last weekend were her brother-in-law Ernest and his daughter Linda Voycey from Gamebridge.

Calling all senior bowlers! Yes, the season will be starting again soon and you are needed to fill the ranks. Besides, its loads of fun and keeps you active. (Remember what's been said in this column these past few weeks about seniors keeping active). The County Bowling Centre, next to Minden's Jug City, is hosting the start of the seniors bowling league on Tuesday, September 9 at 1 p.m. sharp. Please call Gord Arthur at 457-2136 to register.

A quote of short-sightedness comes from C. H. Duell, Commissioner U.S. Office of Patents, 1899: - "Everything that can be invented has been invented".

Promise yourself to be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

St. Paul's Friendship Club will not be meeting for euchre on Monday, September 1 due to the holiday but don't let that deter you for they will meet August 25 and most every Monday thereafter starting at 1:30 p.m. in the Church building and they always welcome newcomers. On August 18 Iris Taylor had the most lone hands and Nancy Gayton won the 50/50 draw while the Lee family, Norm and Helen, struck again by winning the high scores.

Club 35 had a good time with euchre games last week as evidenced by the number of winners. Ken Stiver had the most lone hands and also won the 50/50 draw. While this excitement was going on Maxine Thomson and Fred Gregory won the high scores and Betty Harper and Stan Walters snuck in with the low scores. The treasured baloney award went to Jane Swick. Join in the fun every Monday at 7:30 p.m. And don't worry about partners as they are not required.

Contract bridge players from the Stanhope Firefighters Hall always enjoy themselves and last week many newcomers were on hand to fill the gap created by the regular players' absence due to the great weather we've been having.

After filling 7-1/2 tables Marion Day came in first followed by Muriel McIntosh second and Dorothy Strype third. One small slam was bid and made by Wynne Hansen and Gerda Spelt. The door prize went unanimously to Grace Smyth. You are most welcome to join them any Tuesday starting at 1 p.m. and partners are not required.

Seniors bid euchre is enjoyed each Tuesday starting at 1:30 p.m. in the Minden Legion. Last week, the excited Marg McAfee called in the results of the August 19 play: top winner was Ida Young; second Bev Johnson; third Gala Stamp. The hidden score was found mutually by Jack and Iris Taylor ('aint love grand). Marg managed two moonshots and Norm Lee captured one.

The Stanhope Firefighters Hall is also host to bid euchre players who gather every Wednesday starting at 7 p.m. On August 6 they boasted 8 moonshots and one of these moonshots was captured by dear Edith Russell who also had the high score of 296. Congratulations Edith! Other winners were Grace Dixon 277, Betty Harper 273, Marcel Roussel 264, Garth Windsor 254 and Harry Stuart 237. On August 13 everyone (except Gala) enjoyed a pot luck supper before cards. Because of the full tummies only 6 moonshots were scored, but Maxine Thomson managed to put them back on the map with a score of 306. Runners up were Katie Parker with 282, Jean Scadden 277, Bill Durkin 275, Lou Penick 269 and Ken Wallace 259.

Euchre results from the Minden Legion Thursday, August 14 - 7:15 p.m.; most lone hands Lila Mitchell and Gladys Wruth, high scores Vi Edgson and Frank Campagnolo, low scores Helen Skelding and Norm Lee, other prizes Milt Fletcher and Bill Mitchell.

Club 35, Halls Lake, had another successful day a week ago last Friday playing bid euchre and giving out 4 door prizes. The high score went to Dorothy Walters with a 293, followed by Milt Fletcher 254, Stan Walters 251, Pat Scadden 241, Jeanne Pennick 237 and Jean Scadden 231. Gala Stamp had the hidden score while Marg Fletcher and Frank Awde captured moonshots. Join the fun each Friday at 7 p.m. and don't forget the upcoming pot luck supper on September 12.

HEALTH NEWS:

Safe Microwaving:

Although a great timesaver, the microwave has one food safety disadvantage in that it sometimes leaves cold spots in your food. This may pose a danger, as bacteria can survive in these cold spots. So it's best to cover food with a lid or plastic that is approved for microwaving. The steam will aid in thoroughly cooking the food. While cooking however, steam must be allowed to escape from the plastic wrap and the wrap should not be touching the food. (More tips next week).

CARDS OF THANKS

Sincere thanks to my family and friends for the wonderful surprise birthday party. Special thanks to Joanne and Linda for their arrangements and to everyone who sent cards, sorry you couldn't be with us. It was wonderful - turning 70 didn't hurt a bit!

Ron Robinson Sr.

THANK YOU

I wish to express my gratitude to everyone who had helped me get through the nightmare of my son (Barry Thompson's) unfortunate accident on Sunday morning. Thank you to Terry-Lynn Fahey for your friendly face and calm manner when I arrived at our precious and much needed Minden Hospital; to the Doctor and Nurse who assured me he who assured me he would be OK; the Air Ambulance pilots and flight Doctors; John Pentney for the car flight to Toronto at 5:30 in the morning; George Johnson for the gas to make the trip; Jay Garbutt for his offer to help out when Barry is able to make the trip home; Cub Coneybeare for taking my Mother and myself to Toronto on Tuesday; The Royal Canadian Legion Minden Branch and Ladies Auxiliary members for your calls and offers to take me back to Toronto.

It will be a few months before our lives are back to normal, but with so many great friends in our small town, we will be able to get through this together.

Shirley Kirk.

A heartfelt thank you to everyone for the many get well cards, phone calls and general concern during my recent surgery at Ross Memorial Hospital. There are many people that I need to say a special thank you too, for their prayers and get well wishes. The nursing staff and Dr. Dakin at Ross Memorial Hospital were just excellent and it is great, although to be walking very slowly with this new knee, to walk without severe pain. I owe a debt of gratitude to my family and staff who have so unselfishly filled in. To everyone who has been there to help, may you be richly blessed, thanks again.

Gord Monk

CARDS OF THANKS

THANKS FOR THE
LOTUS FESTIVAL

As youths organizing the first youth "rock" festival in Haliburton, we expected some setbacks due to apprehension in the adult population. However we experienced no problems, mostly enthusiasm and support from those we dealt with.

Our sincere thanks to Donna McCallum and the Municipality of Dysart, Murray Fearley, Rhonda and Barry and everyone at the Wild Oat, Bwana John's, Pizza Den, The Times, The Haliburton County Echo, the Haliburton Rotary Club, the Snowmobile Association, Christopher Greaves and Gary Brohman and Penny Obce and Paul Longo (for much needed moral support), Stonewood Printing, Sunny's Variety, the Shell Station, The Storeroom, the Beaver Theatre and all those beautiful bands and last, but not least, all the volunteers without whom we could not have done it. Thanks to everyone who came and enjoyed our festival.
